

General Objectives of the Library

Your Hub for 21st Century Knowledge

1. To assemble, preserve and administer, in organized collections, information, resources and recreational material to encourage citizens of all ages to educate themselves through lifelong learning, recognizing the library as a prime alternative educational institution.

To provide a warm and welcoming physical space for meeting and interacting with others; reading quietly or using virtual spaces for social interaction or networking.
2. To serve the community as a center of reliable information.
3. To provide a place where inquiring minds may encounter the original, sometimes unorthodox and critical ideas necessary as correctives and stimulants in a global society that depends on its survival on free competition of ideas.
4. To support educational, civic and cultural activities of groups and organizations.
5. To continually identify community needs, through various means, and provide programs or services to meet those needs while cooperating with other organizations, agencies and institutions to provide specialized programmes or services.
6. To provide opportunity for recreation through the use of literature, recorded music, audio books, e-text and video. Alternate forms to print will be offered to those with unique needs.
7. To provide equitable access to digital information resources, through up-to-date technology.
